SR-2(g). The Regional Chairman and committee on Time and Place shall be responsible for those duties as outlined in RSR 3(c), 3(c)1 and 3(c)2.

STANDING RULE 3

CONVENTIONS

SR-3(a). The Northwest Region shall hold a Regional Convention not less than 15 days, nor more than 75 days before the convening of a National Convention. A Mid Year Convention may be held during the month of February, March or April. The Mid-Year is at the discretion of the Regional President.

SR-3(a)1. If the Regional President deems it necessary to hold a Mid-Year Convention he will direct the Time and Place Committee, with adequate time, to secure a location. The time would be in accordance with SR-3(a).

SR-3(b). The governing body of the Northwest Region shall be the qualified and elected delegates of the branches from the Northwest Region assembled at a Mid-Year and/or Regional Convention.

SR-3(b)1. The provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws of the FRA, the By-Laws and Standing Rules of the Northwest Region FRA, and Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern the convention.

SR-3(c). A branch submitting a bid to host a Regional Convention shall submit such bid to the Regional President by 15 July of the year proceeding the year in which the convention is to be held. The bid shall include:

- (1) Convention Chairman's name, address and telephone number
- (2) Time and place.
- (3) Location and capacity of meeting rooms.
- (4) Location and capacity of hotel/motel rooms.
- (5) Proximity of meeting and lodging to auto/RV parking, restaurants and other amenities.
- (6) Facilities for the handicapped.

The bid shall be signed by both the Branch President and Secretary.

SR-3(c)1. The Regional President shall annually appoint a Time and Place Committee to review the convention bids received. Prior to the adjournment of the Regional Convention the Time and Place Committee will report their recommendation to the convention delegates to accept or reject the bid to host the Regional Convention for the following year.

SR-3(c)2. In the event that no branch submits a bid to sponsor a Regional Convention, or if the sponsoring branch is unable to provide suitable arrangements, the Regional President shall direct the Time and Place Committee to make arrangements for the Regional Convention.

SR-3(d). The Convention Chairman shall appoint a Convention Master-At-Arms, reporting the name of the appointee to the Regional President.

SR-3(e). The Regional President shall make the following appointments. (RSR-1(e)1):

- (1) Parliamentarian.
- (2) Credentials Chairman.
- (3) Chaplain.

The Regional President shall notify the Convention Chairman of these appointments not less than 180 days prior to the date of the convention.

SR-3(e)1. The host branch shall notify the National Administrative Offices of the time and place of the convention four (4) months prior to the convention date.

BRANCH DELEGATES

SR-3(f). Each branch shall prepare the standard credentials form, listing duly elected delegates and/or proxy delegates,

And shall forward a copy signed by the Branch President and Secretary to each of the following:

- (1) Regional President
- (2) Regional Secretary/Treasurer
- (3) Regional Credentials Chairman
- (4) Convention Chairman
- (5) Delegate Chairman
- (6) Branch files

SR-3(f)1. The number of votes to which each branch is entitled at a Regional Convention shall be the same as that to which the branch is entitled at the National Convention as shown on the 31 March report each year in accordance with Section 607(a), C&BL.

SR-3(f)2. The word 'delegate' as used herein shall be considered as embracing delegates, proxies and alternates when substituting for an accredited delegate.

DELEGATE AND PROXY VOTING

SR-3(g). Each branch shall be entitled to the number of delegates to which it is entitled. The total accredited vote for each branch may be cast by its attending delegates or proxy in absence of a full representation.

SR-3(g)1. When instructed by his branch to vote in accordance with the UNIT RULE or other such rule as may be adopted for this specific occasion by the branch, the vote reported by the Branch Chairman shall be reported in accordance with such rule and the vote of no delegate shall be reported otherwise its being assumed that, in accepting delegation, he agreed to abide by such rule.

SR-3(g)2. When not instructed by the branch, the vote of the branch shall be in accordance with the majority of the accredited delegates present and voting; in such case, the vote for the branch may be as a unit or it may be prorated, but in such case no delegate may be deprived of his one (1) vote. No fractional votes will be allowed.

SR-3(g)3. Any branch may designate a Proxy Delegate for the purpose of representing that branch at a Regional Convention in the absence of an accredited delegate/delegation. Such proxy delegate shall furnish a letter, signed by the Branch President and Secretary, setting forth the vote to which the branch is entitled and instructions for casting such vote. The original of this letter shall be presented to the Regional Credentials Chairman prior to the first report of his committee.

SR-3(h). A quorum shall be declared to exist at a Regional Convention when two-thirds (2/3) of the authorized voting strength of the branches of the Northwest Region is represented a delegate or proxy. In computing the voting strength of the convention to determine a quorum, the votes of any branch outside the United States will not be used unless a delegate from such branch is present or the branch is represented by proxy.

SR-3(i). Every member of the Fleet Reserve Association shall have access to the regular sessions of the convention, but shall have no vote or privilege of the floor unless as an accredited delegate, excepting that a National Officer or Past National Officer may have the privilege of the floor but no vote.

SR-3(j). The order of business at a Regional Convention shall be, insofar as practical, the order of business at the National Convention of the Fleet Reserve Association as outlined in Article 6, C&BL and SR-4.

SR-3(k). Voting for the election of Regional Officers shall be by roll call vote, with a simple majority to elect. In the event that three or more candidates for the same office are on the ballot and no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes after the second ballot will be eliminated unless he or she has shown a gain after each subsequent ballot. This method will be followed after each subsequent ballot. SR-4(w).

SR-3(l). On a roll call vote at the Regional Convention, voting shall be conducted according to the numerical order of the branches in even years and reverse numerical order of the branches in odd years. There shall be no passing. The chairman or acting chairman of the branch delegation shall announce the vote of the branch or relinquish the right to vote when the branch has been called three (3) time. SR-4(n)(o).

STANDING RULE 4

FINANCE

SR-4(a). Each branch of the Northwest Region shall pay to the Regional Secretary/Treasurer the sum of thirty-five cents ($.35) for each member on the rolls of the branch, in good standing on 31 March of each year. Payment to be made prior to 31 July of each year.

SR-4(a)1. Each branch which fails to comply with SR-4(a) shall be declared to be in violation of Section 1203(b), C&BL, which violation shall be referred to the National Board of Directors for appropriate action under Section 1203, C&BL.

SR-4(b). The Regional Secretary/Treasurer shall be responsible for the collection of the Regional Per Capita Tax authorized by RSR-4(a). These monies shall be collected, receipted for and deposited in the Regional Treasury.
